WINE CLUB: EXPLORING THE WINES OF SOUTH AFRICA THURSDAY, MARCH 14TH 6:00 - 8:00 PM

The roots of the South African wine industry can be traced to explorations of The Dutch East India Company, which established a supply station in what is now Cape Town in 1659. A Dutch surgeon, Jan Van Riebeeck, was tasked with managing the station and planting vineyards to produce grapes and wine intended to ward off scurvy. Today South Africa is known for its world-class wines, and is the eighth largest wine producing region in the world. Katherine Camera of Broadbent Selections will guide us on a journey by the glass through the stunning countryside of South Africa's wine producing regions.

The price for this event is $38 which includes tastes as well as a cheese and charcuterie plate. The night will begin at 6:00 PM, with the tasting to begin at 6:30 PM sharp.

END-OF-SEASON CELEBRATORY WINE CLUB DINNER THURSDAY, APRIL 11TH 6:00 PM

Join us for an elegant evening celebrating the conclusion of our Wine Club's tasting season. Enjoy a five-course dinner prepared by Chef Adam and his culinary team paired with the wines of Brassfield Estate Winery. Rose Rafferty, Central Regional Manager for Brassfield will present a selection of wines from this California North Coast Estate encompassing some 5000 acres. With the influences of Clear Lake, a unique transverse valley, and in the footprint of Round Mountain volcano, Brassfield is located in some of the most unique lands imaginable.

We encourage our guests to dress their best for this elegant evening featuring a high-end menu and white glove service. The dinner will begin at 6:00 PM and the price is $145 per person.

THURSDAY, MAY 9TH, 6:00 - 8:00 PM: SAKÉ TASTING. Not a wine but a fermented alcoholic beverage made from rice, Saké, like wine, offers many unique flavors and styles, and shares wine's natural affinity for food. The history and origin of Japanese Saké goes back approximately 2,000 years when rice farming came from China. Since then, rice has been a staple in Japanese cuisine, and Saké, which was originally used to celebrate rice harvests, is enjoyed every day. Michael Pare of L'eft Bank Wine Company will be our guide for this supplement to our regular season of tastings. The price for this event is $38 per person.

THURSDAY, JUNE 13TH, 5:00 - 8:00 PM: CELLAR SALE. Don't miss our spectacular cellar sale featuring wines you may have enjoyed over the past few months, end-of-bin bottles, and a handful of rosé and summer sippers brought in just for the sale. All wines will be available to purchase and bring home that day.

Watch your email for more details on our wine events.
Please contact the front desk for reservations: 608-255-4861.
