

THE MADISON CLUB MEMBERS' CODE OF CONDUCT

The Madison Club (the "Club") has a proud 100+-year legacy of leadership and innovation. The Club exists to serve its members and to provide a positive and enjoyable experience for members, guests, and all others. The Club strives to be a place where members, guests and visitors can gather, socialize, dine, and enjoy themselves in a welcoming environment.

Diversity is a source of strength, not only for the Madison Club but for the whole community. The Club, therefore, is firmly committed to providing an environment that is comfortable for everyone, regardless of race, color or ethnicity, national origin, sex, religion, handicap, family or marital status, age, sexual orientation, and any/ all other factors that make our community rich and diverse. Members of the Club, their guests, other visitors, and Club staff are expected to respect each other's rights, dignity, and worth, and to treat each other with courtesy and respect.

Please be mindful of this policy while enjoying the Club. If you have questions regarding this policy, or concerns of any kind, please contact Club management or any member of the Club's Board of Directors.

Code of Conduct

"If elected to membership, I agree to be bound by the bylaws rules, regulations and code of conduct (attached) of the Club in effect and hereafter adopted."
